WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES CELEBRATE DRAMATIC EXPANSION OF THE ONLINE SYSTEM

Shirley K. Baker, Dean of University Libraries at Washington University in St. Louis (right, foreground) and Edward Macias, Provost (left, foreground), leading the celebration to introduce the expanded online system, LUIS PLUS.

LUIS PLUS is a significantly enhanced system that includes the online catalog, journal indexes, and government publications. The LUIS PLUS system represents a jump from 325,000 available records to more than 2 million, with continued growth of approximately 50,000 records per month, representing both the growth of journal article indexes and the completion of retrospective conversion of the online catalog. Work on using LUIS PLUS as a gateway to resources external to the Washington University library system is underway.

Are you entitled to a slice of the airline-settlement pie?

If you flew on American, Continental, Delta, Midway, Northwest, Pan American, TWA, United or USAir between Jan. 1, 1988 - June 30, 1992, you are eligible to file a claim. If 10 million people file, they'd get $25 in cash or certificates for each flight. For claim forms write: Airline Antitrust Litigation; Box 209; Philadelphia, PA 19107-9711.

SAVE-FOR-BOOKS PROGRAM

Recently Sylvania Lighting launched "America's Official Reading Time" encouraging families to set aside a regular reading hour every day. In working with retailers nationwide, Sylvania wants to fight illiteracy by increasing awareness, providing information to parents on "how to get your kids excited about reading", and helping you in getting more books in the hands of America's youth.

School and libraries are invited to register for the Save-for Books Program. Just collect Sylvania Lighting UPCs/Proof of Purchase (redeemable at $.10 /UPC) and in return your library will receive a check quarterly that can be used toward book purchases.

To receive a participation kit, consisting of guidelines, a collection box, and posters, fill in the application form below and send to: America's Official Reading Time; Box 965; West Seneca, NY 14224
